

University of Jordan
School of Law

Special Report Achievements of The School of Law For The Academic Year 2015/2016

School of law
Te;(962-6)5355000 Ext. (24600)
Fax(962-6)5300247
Email : law.qualitycontrol@ju.edu.jo

كلية الحقوق
SCHOOL OF LAW

The law school Wins The Moot Competition 2015

The Faculty of Law of the University of Jordan has recently participated in the National Moot Court Competition of 2015, which was organized by the NGO Rasheedin cooperation with the Jordanian Judicial Council. Three other universities joined the competition this year as well as the University of Jordan; The Petra University, The University of Al-Isra'a and The World Islamic Sciences and Education University.

The subject matter of the case of the competition for this year was relating to the crime of vote-buying, and the conditions of membership in the Jordanian House of Representatives.

The Faculty of Law at the University of Jordan participated in the competition with two teams under the leadership and supervision of Dr. Laith Nasrawin, the Associate Professor of Constitutional Law. The first team consisted of Aya Club and Rania Naber, and the second team consisted of MouhjaMouhaisen and HadeelMughrabi. The second team has successfully won the competition after putting a wonderful performance which attracted the admiration and praise of all judges. They passed the second team of the University of Jordan in the first stage, and then defeating the team of Petra University in the semifinal, before beating the team of the World Islamic Sciences and Education University in the final to win the cup of the competition

This is the second time the School of Law wins this competition. In 2012, the law school took part in this annual competition and succeeded in defeating all other teams and be crowned the champions.

The Dean of the Faculty of Law lectured in a Workshop on International Humanitarian law

The Dean of the faculty of law/Dr. Ibrahim al-Jazi Participated Workshop mechanisms of implementation and application of international humanitarian law organized by the National Committee for International Humanitarian Law and the International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) in Amman on Wednesday, October 28th 2015. The workshop targeted public security officers and diplomats of the Foreign Ministry. Dr. al-Jazi lecture was on challenges international humanitarian law.

University of Jordan's students Completed into the Debate championship

Our aw students, Aya Hakou,,Mousa al-Majali, Dima Al-sheyab. Competed in the semi-finals of the debates Championship, which was concluded on Tuesday, 3-11-2015. The Championship was organized the Alnashama team at the University of Jordan in cooperation with the Qatar Foundation for debates. Students over the months more than one hundred students.

The arbitrators were impressed with the competition and the advanced level of the debating, especially in the presence of international arbitrators,the ambassadors for "Qatar debate." The following students won the prize of the best debaters during the completion:

- 1-Mousa al-Majali at the primary playoffs.
- 2-Aya Hakouz in the final quarter.
- 3-Dima Alsheyab in the playoffs final half.

The Opening of the hall of the late Mashhour H. Al-jazi

President of the University of Jordan Dr. Clailf Tarawneh opened the reading room of the late Lt. Gen. Mashhour H. Al-jazy at the faculty of Law, which has been re-configured and updated by the generous donation from members of the faculty.

Dean of the Faculty of Law attended a Meeting of the International Law Commission

Dr. Ibrahim Al-Jazy attended a meeting of the International Law Commission, consisting of (12 international) experts on the preparatory work of the Conference of the Convention on the Elimination of armed conflict at the invitation of Organization (HWPL) This meeting took place at the headquarters of the HightCourt London from 12 until November 14, 2015.

The Dean of Faculty of Law Meets in Paris Under the Auspices of The UNESCO

The Dean of the Faculty of Law /Dr. Ibrahim Al-jazy took part in the International Law Experts meeting held in Paris Under the auspices of the UNESCO to discuss the international aspects of protecting & historical and cultural heritage at the International Level.

Dean of the Faculty of Law participated in Meeting of The Executive Council of The National Law Society

Dr. Ibrahim Al-jazy participated, in his capacity and as the Head of the International Law Society in the meeting of the executive council of the society in London on 14 November 2015 to discuss activities of branches and to prepare for the next annual conference to be held in South Africa.

The Faculty of Law at the University of Jordan Honors The Wining Students in The Recent Moot Court Competition

The Faculty of Law of the University of Jordan has honored the students who recetnly won the first place in the National Moot Court Competition entitled "Election Crimes". The team was coached by Dr. Laith Nasrawin, Associate Professor in Constitutional Law, and consisted of Hadeel Mugrabi, an Mohja Muhaisin, Aya Kloub, and Rania Naber.

Vice Dean for Quality and Development Affairs Met The Last Year Student on The Verse of Graduate

Vice Dean for Quality and Development affairs/ Dr. Bashar Malkawi met the expected graduate student Explaining the importance of submitting the efficiency exam explaining how serious it is and its effects on the labor market urging them to do their best and to take it seriously .

The Dean of The Faculty of Law Meet Expert from The WIPO

Dr. Ibrahim Aljazy/ The dean of the faculty of law and Dr. Abeer Al-Bawab /Dean of the deanship of Academic Research along with a group of distinguished Professors of the faculty of law Prof. Fayyad Al-Qudah ,Dr. Tariq Hammouri, Dr. Qais Mahafzah, Dr. Saad Abu Al-ghanam, Dr. Mohammed Nsour meet experts from the WIPO to discuss matters of future cooperation in advancing the taught of IP in teaching courses, research, workshops, training and scholarships for students.

A Meeting Held between His Highness Dr Sheikh Sultan bin Mohammed Al Qasimi and Dean of faculty of Law /Dr. Ibrahim Al-Jazy

His Highness Dr Sheikh Sultan bin Mohammed Al Qasimi, Supreme Council member and ruler of Sharjah met with, the Dean of the faculty of Law / Dr. Ibrahim Al-Jazy, during his participation a regional workshop on protecting cultural heritage in times of crisis, Dr. Aljazy's presentation entitled: "protection of the heritage of the illicit trade in antiquities."

The Dean of The Faculty of Law Participates in The Workshop Held by The National Committee for International Humanitarian Law

The Dean of the Faculty of Law participated in a training workshop held by the National Committee for international humanitarian law in cooperation with the International Committee of the Red Cross , the audience were mainly military judges, the Dean of faculty main participation was a lecture about the challenges to Humanitarian Law.

Traffic Awareness Campaign

The first traffic awareness campaign took a part in the University of Jordan /Law faculty Road Marshals and Champion Ra'fat Haroun Presented the following topics:

- Driving in difficult weather conditions.
- How to deal with the vehicle in case of freezing and slipping.
- Illegal drifting in public streets, and all related safety regulations.
- Call of encouragement for Motor Sport especially under the wing of Royal Automobile Club of Jordan.

A race car was displayed in The Faculty's Yard.

The School of Law participated in the 2016 Middle East Regional Round of the Price Media Law Moot Court Competition.

Student from the School of Law of the University of Jordan participated recently in the 2016 Middle East Regional Round of the Price Media Law Moot Court Competition. The Team was coached by Dr. Laith Nasrawin, and included Leen Masadeh, Yamsine Al-Alami, Rahaf Shneikat, Lylaic Al-Assadi.

The team has succeeded, for the first time ever in the history of the Law School, in qualifying to the Final Round of the International Competition, which is going to take place at Oxford University next April, along with the best 40 Universities from all over the world.

A Training Workshop at The Faculty of Law

The Faculty of Law at the University of Jordan embraces a training workshop between the faculty team at the University of Jordan and the Iraqi team, which will be held on Saturday and Sunday, 6, 7/2/2016, as a preparation for the training that will be held in Bahrain on 8-14/2/2016, which will lead to the participation in the William Vis for the Mock Trial in International Commercial Arbitration at its sixth session to be held in Vienna-Austria on-17-25/3/2016.

The Faculty of Law Signed a Memorandum of Cooperation with Al-qistas

The Faculty of Law signed a memorandum of cooperation with Al-qistas Company of Information technology in order to benefit from the company website regarding services, Newsletters, legal database.

The Memorandum was signed by the dean of the faculty of Law / Dr. Mahasen M. Al-Jaghoub and The chairman of Al-qistas Mohammad Abu Yousef.

The purpose of the agreement is to provide fourth year students with of company workshops and training sessions ranging from three months to six months in the areas of contract drafting and analysis of judicial decisions and extract legal principles, the agreement also includes the recruitment of law graduates to the company upon the recommendation of the College taking into account academic results.

UJ Law Students Qualify to International Rounds of Price Media Moot Court

Leen Masadeh, Rahaf Shneikat, and Leilak Al Assadi, Yasmin Al Alami will be representing UJ at the International rounds of the Monroe E. Price Media Law Moot Court Competition.

The team, which is supervised by Dr. Laith Nasrawin, qualified for the international rounds after competing at the fifth and last of the Regional Rounds for the 2016 Price Moot Court Competition - Middle East Rounds - in Cairo.

The Middle East Rounds gathered 6 teams from 4 different countries including Jordan, Lebanon, Afghanistan and Egypt.

The 2016 International Rounds of the 9th annual Price Media Law Moot Court Competition will take place in Oxford, England from 30 March until 2 April 2016.

UJ President Prof. Ekhleif Tarawneh met and congratulated the team, encouraging them to keep up their efforts and to put their determination to succeed.

The Price Media Law Moot Court Programme was established in 2008 with the first International Rounds in Oxford in order to foster an interest in international law governing freedom of expression issues.

The Legal Clinic Student received a Training in Communication Skills

The Faculty of Law Invited Mr. Nick Stanage to train the students of the legal clinic on communication skills, especially in lecturing and how to effectively communicate with the audience and the qualities of a good lecturer and an effective lecture.

Mr. Stanage is an international expert in training lawyers and judges in communication skills and works also as a part- time judge in the UK.

Committee of Sports

The Committee of Sports for the Faculty of law and under the supervision of Dr. Bashar Malkawi /Vice Dean for the development affairs, held a series sporting Activities.

Committee of Future Lawyers

The Committee of Future Lawyers of The Faculty of law and under the supervision of Dr. Bashar Malkawi /Vice Dean for the Development Affairs visits The Jordanian House of Representatives.

Faculty of Law Holds Workshop on Forgery and Counterfeiting

The Faculty of Law organized a seminar and workshop on forgery and counterfeiting forms and detection targeted law students and presented by the Head of the Forensic Sciences Training Centre, Forensic Science Laboratories/Public Security Directorate, Lieutenant Colonel Mahmoud Hourani.

The purpose of the workshop was to expand the knowledge of students on the legal definition of forgery and counterfeiting, as well as techniques and procedures followed by forensic laboratories in detecting forgery.

The workshop ended with a lively question and answer session on the forms of forgery and counterfeiting and relevant forensic approaches.

An awareness lecture on ‘Trafficking in Persons in National and International legislation’

The Hamdi Mango Center for Scientific Research in the University of Jordan (UJ) organised an awareness lecture entitled ‘Trafficking in Persons in national and international legislation’ delivered by Dr. Bashar Malkawi from the Faculty of Law.

The aim of the lecture is to educate the participating students on the definition of trafficking in Persons in the Jordanian and international legislation, as well as the Jordanian anti-human trafficking law.

The lecture addressed the definition of trafficking in persons and the safeguards stated in the Jordanian Labour Law, the Jordanian anti-human trafficking law and other international safeguards in order to combat trafficking in persons.

Dr. Malkawi presented international conventions and protocols regarding trafficking in persons. Additionally, he encouraged the students to expand their information about trafficking in persons. Finally, Dr. Malkawi answered questions and inquiries regarding the topic of the lecture.

The End of The First League Championship of Legal Debates in the Faculty of Law at the University of Jordan

Students' debate entitled “Linking the number of refugee with states' capacity to absorb them and responsibility of rich countries in terms of the reception or support those affected” was held in the theatre of “Samir Shamma” in the Faculty of Law at the University of Jordan.

In the final tournament of the legal debates, teams of the students, who have received training on the debates skills at the hands of professionals in the field of debates, competed. The aim of the debate was to highlight the youth leadership and to strengthen the personality of the law student regarding debates and linking theory with practice.

At the end of the ceremony, Vice Dean (Dr.Bashar Melkawi) gave certificates of participation and gold and silver medals to the winners.

Bel Arabi foundation launches its legal Project

Bel Arabi Foundation for languages and science supported and funded by Abdulhamid Shoman Foundation has launched its legal project at the Faculty of Law in the University of Jordan with the collaboration of the office for development and Quality. Professor Lina Shabib, as a representative of the Dean Professor Mahasen Al-Jaghoub, assured the faculty's support to the project in her speech. A number of the faculty's teaching board had also attended the event, and expressed their pride with such a project, and WIKIPEDIA's representative Eng. Rami Al-Tarawneh. The students running this project have presented the achievements of the project, its objectives, working mechanism and future plans. Bel Arabi Foundation is celebrating launching events of other projects in different faculties in the University of Jordan, and soon in other universities

The Faculty of Law Students Visits The Drugs Enforcement Administration

The Development Affairs Office Under the supervision of Dr. Bashr Malkaw / Vice Dean for the Development Affairs organised visits for the Faculty of Law Students to the Drugs enforcement administration and learn about studies of administration and the nature of their work .

UJ Moot Court Team Recognized for Regional Achievement

The University of Jordan (UJ) President Prof. Azmi Mahafzah on Tuesday, May 10, received and honored students who participated and won the second place at the Third Arab Moot Court competition last month.

Law students Sufian Nawaiseh, Bara'a Farahat, Hadeel Mughrabi and Rani Naber were handed recognition awards by the president in presence of Vice President Prof. Musa Al Lozi, Dean of the Faculty of Law Dr. Mahasen Al-Jaghoub, and their supervisor Dr. Ashraf Al Adwan.

The competition, kicked off on April 17 and continued for a week at Omani Sultan Qaboos University (SQU), included a simulation of the courtroom and how students argue, and how they act as prosecutor and defendant .

Commending the achievement, Mahafzah congratulated the team and encouraged them to keep up such excellent work in the future.

11 universities from Gulf and Arab countries took part at the competition, including Qatar, Morocco, Egypt, Kuwait, UAE, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Jordan, Iraq and Palestine take part at the competition.

The competition aims at encouraging the study of law and benefiting from the experiences of professors and arbitrators who take part with their teams. The competition also aims at promoting the culture of arbitration in commercial disputes and enhancing networking among participants.

The team argued criminal cases that involved forgery, human trafficking, drug trafficking, and money laundering. Hadeel Mughrabi was named the best oral advocate.

Students of The School of Law help in painting a smile on the faces of Orphans at Iftar

Students from the School of Law , University of Jordan help in painting a smile on the faces of orphan Children from The Awn House Charitable Orphanage , this is part of the student's effort in connecting with the local society .

